

Appriss Insights – Continuous Monitoring for Transportation with Brian Matthews

Jun 24, 2020 William Tincup

Tune in for the conversation! Highlights include:

- What Brian found within workplace hiring data that he did not expect to find, especially now.
- On continuous monitoring, and what's happening within the transportation industry right now.
- How risk profiles change rather than remaining static.
- What are employers looking for in their employees that they are hiring today?
- Employer brand monitoring post-separation. Will this eventually happen in the future?

Plus, much more. Tune in and let us know what you think!
